A Message From The Publisher

The 2023 Town Planner Community Calendars for Corona and Riverside mark my sixth year of publication. An inaugural 2023 Central Riverside edition has joined the established editions in West Riverside, East Corona and West Corona. The Calendar continues to be an invaluable information resource for many homes with its listing of community events, the local school schedule, and a directory of phone numbers for city and county services. The money-saving coupons at the bottom are usually exclusive to the Calendar.

If you are a new user of the Calendar, I will share with you a story that has been told many times. In 2017, my first foray into entrepreneurship by starting this home-based Calendar business resulted from a desire to spend more time with my son Karson, who was 11 at the time. I left a financial career in Corporate America. Like past years, to symbolize this major life decision, Karson once again graces the Calendar cover.

The 2023 Corona theme is "Creating Art is Smart... Art Enriches and Inspires Our Children". Special thanks to Edgar Tarin, owner of Team Car Care, for allowing his son Daniel to feature his dragon drawing on the cover, and to Qamar Hassan, owner of Vito's Italian Pizza, for having his daughter Eshal provide her butterfly drawing. Finally, I appreciate the time and effort put forth by Patrice Dolphin, owner of Elementary Art Stars, for arranging for her students to showcase their drawings on the monthly photos. Needless to say, these students and their respective parents have my utmost gratitude as well. This year's theme is to emphasize that the arts remain a vital component of a child's education and development.

This Calendar is free because business sponsors/advertisers in the Calendar want to serve the community by supporting the positive messaging and community involvement fostered by the Calendar. Their financial commitment and overall efforts put into the Calendar should never be taken for granted. In turn, we can serve these businesses by giving them careful consideration when a need arises for a service or product provided by them. Your patronage will be supporting local small businesses.

I am proud to highlight the Mary Kay Independent Beauty Consultant featured in this Calendar, Stormy Li. The last name gives it away as she is my wife. She is also a full-time, college Professor of Dental Hygiene and Registered Dental Hygienist (RDH) who fell in love with the products at her first Mary Kay party – so much so that she decided to become a Mary Kay consultant and first-time business owner.

I am truly grateful for the continuing support of Bobby Spiegel, President of the Corona Chamber of Commerce, and Nick Adcock, President of the Greater Riverside Chambers of Commerce, along with their respective, dedicated teams. They create opportunities to help me find ways to grow my business.

The start of a new year is a time for renewed optimism, so set your goals high and don't settle. Remember kindness and TRUE empathy toward others usually makes any situation a little better.

I hope this coming year turns out to be the most meaningful and most productive year yet.

Blessings to you in 2023

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: EDGAR TARIN, OWNER OF TEAM CAR CARE

Edgar Tarin, owner of Team Car Care since 2016, has been an ASE-certified (Automotive Service Excellence), Master Technician for the past 20 years with 30-plus years in the industry. Edgar uses a simple but effective approach to business. He ensures his shop has the best, up-to-date diagnostic equipment and develops trust over time by focusing on customer attention and service, being fair and honest, and not subcontracting any work. With over $500,000 in investment for shop equipment, his business is certified for hybrids and electric cars, while offering programming updating. Team Car Care has earned the reputation as the one-stop shop to visit if your car has a problem that other shops cannot solve. Accordingly, his business is one of the TOP RATED extended warranty shops in Southern California.

As a current resident of Corona, Edgar was born in Orange, California and lived his childhood till young adulthood in South Orange County. By his own admission, his early years were rough and tumble as he was seeking direction in his life. He eventually found his calling working on cars. However, scratch the veneer of this skilled mechanic, and you'll also find a family man who is a devoted father to his three sons. His son Daniel graces the cover of this Calendar with his artwork, which you can also find on the walls of Edgar's office at the shop. With his wife Aracely, who serves our community as a social worker, he can be found on the baseball fields on weekends cheering on Daniel and his older brother Andrew. Moreover, the oldest boy Sebastian can be found working at the shop. On top of spending time with their boys, Edgar and Aracely can also be found having a spirited game of Texas Hold'em with friends over.

Finally, Edgar is a connoisseur of authentic, fine Mexican food. He claims to make the best tamales around as he does something special with the masa. So give his shop a visit and he may share his secret.

Every school needs a quality Art Program! Elementary Art Stars is a unique program devoted to enriching the lives of children and their families through exposure to the visual arts. Our on-site and virtual lessons allow teachers to weave art into their curriculum in a meaningful way. These lessons can be sponsored by schools, PTAs, teachers, grade level teams, and even parents! What a great way to celebrate your child's birthday! After school enrichment is also offered on-site or virtual. We bring and do everything!

We offer an extensive list of lessons on a wide variety of subjects. We have lessons on master artists, animals, cultures, popular kid-friendly subjects, grade level specific curriculum, history, and more! Please visit our web site to learn more.
